2. Stable Yearly Revenue

Revenue remained relatively stable from 2020 to 2024, with the highest value in 2023 at 18.51M.

3. Electronics Leads Categories

Electronics generated the highest category revenue at approximately 15.58M, followed closely by Sports & Outdoors and Books.

4. Strong Customer Concentration

The top customers generated approximately 0.51M–0.55M each, indicating a group of high-value customers.

5. United States Leads Geographic Sales

The United States contributes the largest share of orders and revenue, with Texas showing the highest state-level revenue.

6. Delivered Orders Dominate

Approximately 74.63% of orders were delivered, while shipped and other statuses account for the remaining orders.

Recommendations

1. Focus on High-Performing Categories

Increase inventory and promotional efforts for Electronics and other top-performing categories.

2. Strengthen Customer Retention

Create loyalty offers and personalized promotions for high-value customers to encourage repeat purchases.

3. Expand Regional Opportunities

Prioritize marketing and inventory planning in high-revenue states, especially Texas, while identifying growth opportunities in lower-performing regions.

4. Improve Order Fulfillment

Monitor shipped, pending, returned and cancelled orders to improve the overall delivery and customer experience.

Optimize Product Strategy

Maintain strong-performing products while reviewing lower-performing products for pricing, promotion, or inventory adjustments.
